Your application form for Immigrant's passport/Travel document has been registered in the Application Portal

I understand that the application has not been submitted until I have attended my appointment and handed in the necessary documents, including this letter with a signature. I can find information about which documents to hand in in the email I got when I registered the application form, or at www.udi.no/checklists.

The case processing time is calculated from the day I hand in the documents. I am aware that the application may be rejected if I have not handed in all the documents on the checklist.

I understand that the Norwegian immigration authorities may collect information about me or my reference person from other Norwegian government agencies, for example the Norwegian Tax Administration, the Norwegian Labour and Welfare Service (NAV) or the Norwegian State Educational Loan Fund. The immigration authorities can use this information when processing this application and future cases.

I confirm that the information I have given in my application is correct and complete. I am aware that if I give materially incorrect or clearly misleading information, or do not give information of material significance,

- my application can be rejected, and any future residence permit I am given can be withdrawn
- I can be refused entry or be expelled from Norway and Schengen. If I am expelled I will be registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS), which means that I will be refused entry to the whole of the Schengen Area
- I can be punished according to Norwegian law
